

As part of British Science Week, all children are going to be making time capsules!

On Monday 11th March (a week on Monday), please can all children bring into school any pictures from newspapers, magazines, printed from the internet, personal photos (printed copies not originals) etc which show what 2024 means to them.

